Featuring the Blacksburg Master Chorale, the Blacksburg Children’s Chorale, the Virginia Tech Choirs, and the VT Philharmonic Orchestra

Composed and conducted by Dwight Bigler

Danielle Talamantes
Soprano

Jami Rhodes
Mezzo Soprano

Isaac Hurtado
Tenor

Christopher Holmes
Baritone

April 3, 2022, 7:00pm, Moss Arts Center

Tickets: $20 general, $10 senior/student, available at the Moss Arts Center box office

Two hundred and fifty musicians will fill the stage to perform this world premiere, which includes lyrics by leading environmental authors, visual arts projections designed by VT’s David Franusich, and stunning illuminations by Barbara Wolff. To purchase tickets and learn about the events below, scan the QR code or visit artscenter.vt.edu/performances.

Major sponsors include: College of Liberal Arts and Human Sciences; College of Science; Institute for Creativity, Arts, and Technology; Department of English; BioBuild Interdisciplinary Graduate Education Program; Moss Arts Center; College of Architecture and Urban Studies; and Pamplin College of Business.

Related Events:

- Myths of Sustainability
  Feb. 24, 6-7:30pm

- Fostering Sustainable Change
  March 21, 7-8:30pm

- Lost Mountain: A Reading by Erik Reece
  April 4, 4pm

- Personal Sustainability Planning Workshop
  April 16, 1-3pm