SING-ALONG TEXTS

SILVER BELLS

City sidewalks, busy sidewalks
Dressed in holiday style.
In the air there’s a feeling of Christmas.
Children laughing, people passing
Meeting smile after smile
And on every street corner you hear
Silver bells, silver bells
It’s Christmas time in the city.
Ring-a-ling. Hear them ring.
Soon it will be Christmas Day.
Sleigh bells ring. Are you list’ning’
In the lane snow is glist’ning:
A beautiful sight. We’re happy tonight

WINTER WONDERLAND

Walking in a winter wonderland.
Gone away is the bluebird.
Here to stay is the new bird.
He sings a love song as we go along
Walking in a winter wonderland.
In the meadow we can build a snowman,
Then pretend that he is Parson Brown.
He’ll say, “Are you married”
We’ll say, “No, man”
But you can do the job when you’re in town.
Later on, we’ll conspire
As we dream by the fire
To face unafraid the plans that we made
Walking in a winter wonderland.
FROSTY THE SNOWMAN

Frosty the snowman was a jolly, happy soul
With a corncob pipe and a button nose
And two eyes made out of coal.
Frosty the snowman is a fairy tale they say.
He was made of snow but the children know
How he came to life one day.
There must have been some magic in
That old silk hat they found,
For when they placed it on his head
He began to dance around. Oh!
Frosty the snowman was alive
as he could be
And the children say he could laugh and play
Just the same as you and me.
Just the same as you and me.
RUDOLPH THE RED-NOSED REINDEER

Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer
Had a very shiny nose
And, if you ever saw it,
You would even say it glows.
All of the other reindeer
Used to laugh and call him names.
They wouldn’t let poor Rudolph
Join in any reindeer games,
Then one foggy Christmas Eve
Santa came to say,
“Rudolph, with your nose so bright,
Won’t you guide my sleigh tonight?”
Then how the reindeer loved him
As they shouted out with glee,
“Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer,
You’ll go down in history!”

WHITE CHRISTMAS

I’m dreaming of a white Christmas,
Just like the ones I used to know:
Where the treetops glisten and children listen
To hear sleighbells in the snow.
I’m dreaming of a white Christmas
With ev’ry Christmas card I write.
May your days be merry and bright
And may all your Christmases be white.

The Roanoke Symphony Orchestra is pleased to welcome young vocalist Emme Cannon for her Holiday Pops debut this week. A native of Roanoke who is a real rising young star, Cannon is equally comfortable performing pop ballads, in musical theatre roles, classical favorites, and with alternative music. In a recent interview with the Roanoke Symphony Orchestra, she shared, “I am thrilled to return to the Roanoke Valley, a place where I had such wonderful music teachers and mentors. I feel like I am truly coming home for the holidays, surrounded by family and friends — and an orchestra that I love.”

The Roanoke Times glowingly described her “hypnotizing voice and delivery.” Cannon has been heard widely throughout the Boston area, including concerts at the Boston Book Festival, the Boston Calendar, and many others. Roanoke music lovers remember her fondly from a captivating performance at the Grandin Theatre at Songwriters in the Round. Cannon’s Two Track series performance has accumulated over 10,000 views. She is a compelling singer/songwriter who creates a unique feeling of being in the eye of the storm between peace and chaos with her captivating presence.

Cannon is a recent graduate from Boston’s acclaimed Berklee College of Music, where she studied contemporary writing and production and songwriting. She has performed with full symphonies and bands in New England, including tribute concerts to Lady Gaga, Beyoncé, and many other contemporary stars. Her most recent release, Can’t Say No to You, expresses forgiveness and self-realization in toxic relationships. Her first self-written and produced EP, Home Planet, explores aspects of life beyond this realm and finding love in life’s uncertainties.

Find more information at emmecannon.com, and please join us in welcoming Virginia’s own Emme Cannon to our 2023 Holiday Pops!

DAVID STEWART WILEY, MUSIC DIRECTOR AND CONDUCTOR

Roanoke Symphony Orchestra Maestro David Stewart Wiley has conducted such symphonies as Atlanta, Buffalo, Cincinnati, San Francisco, Milwaukee, Indianapolis, Minnesota, Saint Louis, Oregon, Hawaii, and Utah, as well as in dozens of countries in Asia, Africa, and Europe. Wiley made his triple debut with Boston Pops as conductor, composer, and piano soloist in Boston’s historic Symphony Hall, and this busy season includes a return as guest conductor to Bari, Italy, with the Orchestra Sinfonico at the historic Teatro Petruzzelli. Wiley enjoys a multi-faceted and in-demand career as an orchestra builder, guest conductor, pops arranger, educator, and chamber music collaborator, and inspires and engages both orchestras and audiences.
Under his direction since 1996, the Roanoke Symphony Orchestra (RSO) has experienced continued artistic growth, program innovation and expansion, and increased financial stability. Wiley’s tenure with the RSO is a remarkable success story, with a diverse and impressive list of guest artists and composers and innovative commissions of new music. Wiley is an engaged and active community partner and recognized celebrity, having been named Roanoke’s “Citizen of the Year” for his outstanding service and outreach. He was part of the leadership team who traveled to Denver as Roanoke received its seventh “All-American City” award. Wiley actively partners with schools and numerous arts and civic organizations, and the RSO and Wiley received a prestigious Distinguished Music Educator Award from Yale University for their partnership with city schools. The RSO produced its first live TV broadcast and collaborates with WVTF public radio to rebroadcast many of its concerts. Wiley’s energetic work bringing classical music to youth in our minority communities has been steadfast, and he was honored by the NAACP as Citizen of the Year in the Arts for his service. He is a recipient of the Perry F. Kendig Prize for service to the arts and is a Paul Harris Fellow from Rotary International. He and his wife, Leah, were recently honored at the MS Society’s Dinner of Champions for their leadership, and Wiley was honored during his 25th acclaimed RSO season by Governor Youngkin and a joint bipartisan resolution in the Virginia house and senate.

Wiley continues serve as music director and conductor of New York’s Orchestra Long Island, continuing his commitment to education and outreach throughout Long Island. Wiley also enjoys a special relationship with Virginia’s Blue Ridge Music Festival as artistic director, and previously served as assistant conductor of the Minnesota Orchestra and the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. As an experienced leader, Wiley plans and facilitates an innovative experience with business executives and musicians together on stage, titled Conducting Change.

As a solo pianist with diverse classical, pops, and chamber music experience, Wiley has performed with numerous orchestras in the United States, including Boston, Minnesota, Indianapolis, Oregon, Honolulu, Wheeling, and West Virginia, performing major concerti by Baroque to contemporary, often conducting from the piano. He has made recital and chamber music appearances in China, Russia, Romania, Germany, Hungary, Italy, the Czech Republic, and Bulgaria. Numerous opera and ballet performances include the Aspen Opera Theater, IU Opera Theater, and the Moscow Ballet.

Summer engagements include the Aspen Music Festival, Brevard Music Center, Garth Newel, Wintergreen, Park City (Utah), Minnesota Orchestra Summerfest, and Sitka (Alaska) and Prince Albert (Hawaii) summer music festivals. From 1999 until 2006 Wiley was the artistic director and conductor of the Wintergreen Summer Music Festival, where he founded and built the festival orchestra, created the student academy, and led the festival to remarkable artistic growth in seven years, tripling the balanced budget.

Wiley’s CDs include an album of French Cello Concerti with Zuill Bailey and the Roanoke Symphony on Delos International; Beethoven’s Symphony no. 9, Choral, with the RSO and Choruses; and American Piano Concertos with Norman Krieger and the RSO on Artisie 4, which includes Wiley’s third piano concerto. He has released Wiley & Friends: Classical Jazz, American Trumpet Concertos with the Slovak Radio Symphony/Neebe; a violin/piano duo CD, Preludes & Lullabies, with Akemi Takayama; Sempre Libera with soprano Adelaide Trombeta; a solo piano CD with all original compositions, Full Circle; and Piano Bells. As a composer, he wrote symphonic music for the film Lake Effects, which featured a symphonic soundtrack performed by the RSO, with Wiley conducting and original music by Kazimir Boyle and Wiley. Numerous orchestras, including the Boston Pops, continue to perform his music.

Wiley won the Aspen Conducting Prize, was assistant conductor for the Aspen Music Festival, and was awarded a Conducting Fellowship at Tanglewood. He holds both a doctor and master of music in conducting from Indiana University, a degree in piano performance with honors from the New England Conservatory of Music, and a degree in religion, summa cum laude, from Tufts University. can't stop, won't stop: tenets of southern alchemy william cordova examines the visual aspects of transition and displacement, studying the evolution and adaptation of objects and perception across time and space. Constructing artworks composed of reclaimed elements, paint, gold leaf, and collage, cordova presents encoded representations of social systems and the material histories of objects and images.

Ruth C. Horton Gallery

Multidisciplinary artist Laurie Steelink is a citizen of the Akimel O’otham Nation and a member of the Gila River Indian Community. Exploring connections to her Native American roots, Steelink creates assemblages of found objects and reassembled paintings to question authenticity and consider spirituality. Using her creativity to reconnect with and to reference her ancestors, culture, and community, Steelink defines her work as an expression of her personal identities.
K-12 PROGRAMS AT THE MOSS ARTS CENTER

Experiences with the arts cultivate the next generation of creative thinkers, engage learners of diverse backgrounds, and foster community dialogue. The Moss Arts Center has been dedicated to providing K-12 students in the region with free, high-quality, and exciting arts programming since opening our doors in 2013. Through school-day matinee programs, gallery tours, in-school performances, and workshops with artists, we are passionate about serving our youngest community members and schools.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Moss Arts Center’s portable and collapsible orchestra shell installs in a matter of hours. Featuring a curved, hard surface, the shell primarily acts as a monitor so that musicians can hear each other, but also provides modest amplification to the house, reflecting sound to the audience.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Virginia Tech acknowledges that we live and work on the Tutelo/Monacan People’s homeland, and we recognize their continued relationships with their lands and waterways. We further acknowledge that the Morrill Land-Grant College Act (1862) enabled the commonwealth of Virginia to finance and found Virginia Tech through the forced removal of Native Nations from their lands in California and other areas in the West.

LABOR RECOGNITION

Virginia Tech acknowledges that its Blacksburg campus sits partly on land that was previously the site of the Smithfield and Solitude Plantations, owned by members of the Preston family. Between the 1770s and the 1860s, the Prestons and other local White families that owned parcels of what became Virginia Tech also owned hundreds of enslaved people. Enslaved Black people generated resources that financed Virginia Tech’s predecessor institution, the Preston and Olin Institute, and they also worked on the construction of its building.

YMCA AT VIRGINIA TECH

Key Moments in the YMCA at Virginia Tech’s History

1873 The YMCA forms at Virginia Tech, focusing on religious and extracurricular activities for students
1892 71 out of 177 students of Virginia Tech are members of the YMCA
1893 YMCA publishes the first Student Handbook for Virginia Tech
1899 The cornerstone for the YMCA building, the first “Hokie Stone” building, is laid
1902 The YMCA building opens its doors and serves as the first Student Center at Virginia Tech
1918 Paul Derring, the longest serving General Secretary (40 years), begins work for YMCA
1970 Emily Stuart becomes Director of YMCA and begins the Int’l Programs and the Crafts Fair
1971 Open University, Y Hikes, and Soup & Substance Program were founded
1975 YMCA Thrift Shop opens in Blacksburg (Radford store opens in 2002)
1986 Project Home Repair returns to focus on general repairs for the at-need & elderly
1989 Lucy Lee Lancaster donates her home to the YMCA and the After School Program was founded
2006 YMCA purchases 1000 North Main and moves the Thrift Shop to that location

Meet the Y Team

Mary Conner
Physics Major Class of 2026
YMCA Student Program Leader of Y Leaders Club and Rocktoberfest.

I love how the YMCA enriches the local community and is foundational to the campus.

I’m so proud to be a part of the YMCA at VT, and love to learn about the history of it.

In my spare time I am a member of the club gymnastics team and a member of the local music scene!

Meet more Y Team members in the next MAC program!

Velva Groover
YMCA at Virginia Tech Board Member
Retired Research Specialist Sr. in the School of Plant and Environmental Sciences

My favorite thing about the Y is the sustainability aspect. Reusing and recycling at the Thrift Shop and Y-Toss. And supporting other groups with donated items that can’t be sold and otherwise would be put in the landfill.

The Y has supported the university in so many ways over the years. VT now has numerous offices, divisions, and countless employees to administer the services that the Y once provided such as course registration, gym type facilities, and a place to gather and find fellowship. Some current VT programs began with the Y and now are housed at the university. The international student programs began at the Y. Service learning and big event were modeled after Y programs.

My volunteer activities include sorting and pricing Toys and school supplies at the Thrift Shop; helping at Plenty! Food Pantry; planting and maintaining the alcoves in Floyd; various activities with Perfect Gift Shop.
